

Forecast of Information Security Solutions Market Development in Russia. Presentation of CSR's 2023 Report

Center for Strategic Research (CSR) will present its second analytical report “Forecast of Information Security Solutions Market Development in the Russian Federation”.

Due to development of digital technologies and need to ensure cybersecurity, as well as taking into account the current geopolitical situation, which has led to mass withdrawal of Western manufacturers from the Russian market, a domestic market of IT-solutions has already been formed, including implementation of information security tools and services in the field of information security — the fact, which was confirmed by the CSR report in 2022.

Now CSR is going to present updated data on the market, as well as a forecast of its development until 2027.

On July 28, 2023, the Russia-Africa summit will host an expert session with presentation of the report and discussion of the current state and prospects of the domestic market for information security solutions. Representatives of Russian federal executive authorities, companies developing information security tools, industry analysts and experts are invited to participate.

Ekaterina Kvasha, CSR, and Alexandr Malakhov, also from CSR, will present the report at 12.00–13.00, ExpoForum Exhibition and Convention Centre, Pavilion H, briefing hall H2.
